The Arts Centre has advised us that on Thursday the 1st Sept there is a large function in the Grevillea Room at a similar time to our performance. Parking may be limited and they have advised to allow extra time or take the train to Bell Station. Parking at Bell station could be another option.

Le Olimpiadi

In 5/6 we have been talking about le Olimpiadi (the Olympics). We have been discussing our preferred sports and favourite athletes - "Qual è il tuo sport preferito?", giving preferences and points of view - "Mi piace guardare il nuoto". (I like watching the swimming), "Non mi piace la ginnastica." (I don't like gymnastics). We have been learning how to use i numeri ordinali (ordinal numbers), considering how the Olympics has changed over the years and practising saying which country we come from "Vengo dall'Australia."

Thanks to our volunteer Pina who made the medals which were awarded to students for great participation and performance in class. Bravi!

Ducks for Detainees

What do you know about ducks?

Well, they float on water and come to shore for refuge.

Using the happy image of the duck, we remind Australia that there are people seeking refuge on our shores, who are suffering in detention.

Join us to decorate paper cut-outs of ducks – each one representing an individual man, woman or child in offshore detention.

Newlands Community Centre, 20 Murray Rd, Coburg North

Saturday 27th August 2016, 1pm to 4pm

Free event – pop in or stay for 3 hours! (No age limit, but children need to be accompanied by an adult.) facebook.com/ducksfordetainees/

Coburg RSL Band Night #25
The Electric Guitars–Swim Team–Time for Dreams–It Speaks
Saturday 3 Sept, 7pm, $5
@ Coburg RSL, 323 Sydney Road, Coburg 3058

The Coburg RSL Band Night has rounded its 2nd anniversary and is going from strength to strength as a venue in its own right. Continuing with the usual boutique lineups of bands, the 3rd of September sees pedigree musicians The Electric Guitars matched with some of the latest bands to be percolating away right now in Melbourne. The Coburg RSL is a person-friendly venue. We welcome all ages (minors with a guardian). Become a member and get a discount on the (already ridiculously cheap) beer ... at this and ALL RSLs in Australia! Come and see what all the hype is about.

The Electric Guitars: Headlining our next Band Night is this self-described bunch of bananas in cabanas. Switching it up from 90s space rock to contemporary mind-fuzz-psych. Good for brain resets. See: facebook.com/theelectricguitars & theelectricguitars.bandcamp.com/ &/or youtube.com/user/TheElectricGuitarsAu

Swim Team: The year 2015 was one of clean slates for four girls living in Melbourne’s inner-city suburbs. Each of them quit their jobs and obtained new ones. They fist-pumped the air at their ongoing lust for change and fresh starts and hence decided to start a band, and then Swim Team was born. Comprising members of Bad Vision and The Pink Tails, plus two crafty pals on drum and bass who have never played their instruments before. Find em: www.facebook.com/swimteamband/

Time for Dreams: Amanda Roff (Harmony) and Tom Carlyon (Standish/Carylon and the Devastations) describe Time for Dreams as “sonic humility.” They make “escapist, protoan pop, and smoky, shimmery soundtracks for nightclubs of the mind.” Dig: facebook.com/time4dss/ & soundcloud.com/time_for_dreams

It Speaks: This feisty electronic ensemble are deceivingly clever. Winding, casio-tinged instrumentals are descended upon by dark organic matter. Mossy techno-pop. They’ve got stuff to listen to: https://soundcloud.com/it-speaks
